Congressman John N. Garner and his friend, Geo. Kennedy of Sabinal, stopped over a little while here Wednesday enroute to points down the I. & G. N. and the lower valley. They are making the trip by easy stages in an auto and will cover much of the 15th district while on the trip. Judge Garner does not look any the worse for his more than twenty years scrapping with the depraved Republican majority in Congress, and still has in his make-up just the material for a Democratic speaker—one who could tell that bunch where to head in at.

The Hondo Farm Loan Association this week completed its first loan of $25,000. The law was only recently amended, raising the limit from $10,000 to $25,000, and this is the first one so far completed in this Association. The Federal Farm Loan Bank has done a great service to Medina County farmers in lending them much needed funds at a low rate of interest and on long time for payment.

The Hondo Aztecs journeyed to LaCoste last Sunday for a game with the Tigers of that town—and it was a bad day for the tigers, as they had their claws extracted to the tune of 20 to 3. The Aztecs are finding it a little difficult to match games, a long string of victories making other teams a bit shy about matching contests with them. However, they hope to find other victims soon.

Mrs. Harry E. Taylor, Miss Mollie de Montel and Mrs. Fletcher Davis and son, Marion, accompanied Mr. Harry E. Taylor to Kerrville Sunday where he entered the Thompson Sanitarium. They made the trip in the Taylor Overland leaving Hondo about 6 o'clock Sunday morning and reaching home about 7:30 Sunday evening.

Ed. H. Callaham, formerly a citizen of Hondo but now in the mercantile business in San Antonio, was here Saturday to attend the funeral of his late friend, Fritz Frerichs. Mr. Callaham's former Medina County friends are glad to know that he is prospering in the Alamo City.

An unusual and a doubly sad occurrence was a double funeral at the Hondo cemetery Saturday afternoon. Immediately following the burial of Mr. Fritz Frerichs many repaired at once to another part of the cemetery and there attended the funeral of Mr. Joe Neuman.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scherer and daughter, Miss Florence, and Miss Lucille de Montel came over from Castroville and spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Davis. Miss Anne Davis, who had spent the past weeks at Castroville, returned home with them.

WITH THE DRILLERS.

The drill in the Schmidt No 2 of the Ina Oil Co. was started on its downward course to the oil reservoir Thursday, and in one and a half hours had reached a depth of 40 feet. The purpose of the driller to spud in last week was delayed from one cause and another, but now that the spud in has finally been effected it is hoped that progress will be rapid, and that soon a real oil well will be adding its wealth to the many other resources of Medina county. The driller in charge has expressed his determination to complete this new well in some eight or ten days, but it is possible difficulties will be encountered that will require a greater length of time, but now that the drill has been started it is a question of but a few weeks at most before a great oil well will be an accomplished fact. Fuel oil for the drilling of the new well will be furnished by the test or discovery well which established the existence of the oil pool. As soon as the well now drilling is completed the rig will be shifted and a new one spudded in, but the exact location, so far as we are informed has not yet been determined, but as we understand it, the offset must be at least 300 feet from the new drilling.

Fritz Fuchs will spud in on the Nixon ranch about 1 mile from the Ina Oil Company's well just as soon as the derrick and rig can be installed. In fact, the contract signed and the forfeits posted call for the spudding in, at the furthest, in thirty days, but before that date arrives Mr. Fuchs expects to have the well under way. Mr. Fuchs, a strong believer in a good oil pool underlying Medina county in a conversation with an Anvil Herald reporter, Thursday, expressed his purpose of developing all the leases held by him as rapidly as possible. He was in San Antonio Friday for the purpose of signing up another drilling contract on a lease some three or four miles distant from the Ina Oil Co.'s well. When this well is spudded in its progress will be watched with interest, for should it come in as a producer, of which Mr. Fuchs hasn't the least doubt, it will add greatly to the oil territory. He is by no means a tyro in the oil game, and his experience and success has given people confidence in his judgment.

Another new drilling contract has been entered into for a well on the J. E. Adams tract something more than a mile from the Ina Oil Co.'s well, and nearly due south according to our information. These new drilling propositions will establish the trend of the pool, and on their completion a great drilling campaign will undoubtedly be inaugurated.

It is reported that another drilling enterprise located less than half a mile from the discovery well that has been held up for sometime while some defects in the lease were being remedied, will spud in in the immediate future, all defects have been remedied. A well will probably be spudded in by the first of the oncoming month.

Young & Wright, on the Bendle tract, are steadily drilling but are giving out no information. Experienced oil men have a good opinion of their location and as this is to be a deep test, its progress will create greater interest as the drill approaches the oil sand.

Oil scouts are increasing daily. In fact, they have become so numerous that County Clerk Jungman has

Mr. Emanuel Poerner and daughter, Miss Emma, and sons, Andrew and William, came up Saturday afternoon to visit Mr. Rudolph Poerner and to attend the funeral of Mr.
Fritz Frerichs. Mr. Poerner paid the Anvil Herald office a pleasant call while here.

FRITZ FRERICHS DEAD.

Just as this paper was ready to go to press last week news was received of the passing of Mr. Fritz Frerichs.
He had been in poor health for a about three years, and while his family and friends knew that the hand of death could not be much longer stayed, his passing was a shock to all.

Fritz Frerichs was a good man—good in many of those noble attributes that go to make real manhood.
He was true to his ideals and true to his friends, and the writer is glad to have been one of these for he was our friend.

A large concourse of sorrowing ones from all over the county gathered Saturday afternoon to pay their last respects to their departed friend, and when the last sad rites were said they left his last resting place heaped with beautiful flowers, tender evidences of their love and sorrow.

We are indebted to his pastor, Rev. Geo. E. Grueber, for the following biographical sketch of his life:

Mr. Fritz Frerichs was born Feb.
28, 1875, at Quihi, Texas. Here also he was baptised, May 16, 1875, and confirmed, April 14, 1889, and from that time forth was a member of the Quihi Lutheran Church and later, the remainder of his life, a member of the Hondo Lutheran church.

In 1897, July 8, he was married to Miss Rosa Schuehle. This union was blessed with two sons, Rolf and Erwin Frerichs.

Mr. Frerichs was engaged in various business enterprises and in every instance his efforts were crowned with success.

All who knew him speak of him as a capable man, full of energy and life and blessed with robust health.
Alas about three years ago, God in his all-wise council saw fit to cast upon his shoulders a heavy cross and peculiar affliction. He became a victim of that dreaded malady, tuberculosis, which slowly and persistently emaciated his wonderful physique. He sought relief everywhere, at home and abroad, and through every means. Twice he was an inmate of the Kerrville Sanitarium. It was here, during his second sojourn at this institution, that his physicians earnestly and with much regret informed him that his malady had passed beyond all human skill and power and that he should place the entire matter into the hands of his Creator.

With this message in mind and heart he came home to all those who were near and dear to him, fully resigning himself into the hands of the Lord and awaiting the final summons from on high.

God made ready to call him. On Friday afternoon, Aug. 3, a few minutes before 1:00 o'clock, while partaking of his noon meal, he was overcome by a hemorrhage and in a short time he fell asleep in the arms of his faithful and devoted wife. Truly, she was faithful, sacrificing everything, pressing into service every ounce of devotion and care that he might be comfortable.

This is the tribute we pay to that faithful companion and we say it without flattery or reservation.

Our community, far and wide, has lost another citizen, son, father and friend, but he has reached the heavy-est gain, free from all earthly fetters and pain.

DEVINE NEWSLETS.

From The Devine News.
Two Wells On Christilles Farms Flowing Oil.

George Christilles and family, spent Thursday in Devine with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmidt. Mr. Christilles made the News office a pleasant call; and when told the Ina was flowing in heads; said that is good but we have two wells on the Christilles estate that are flowing and have been for some time and we can't get development. I offered to put in a pump and believe it will increase if pumped but the leasee keeps putting us off and while it was rumored recently that another machine was coming to drill more, and the lease contract calls for continued drilling, nothing is being done. Three wells have been drilled on the Christilles estate; 1150, 630 and 580 feet two of which Mr. Christilles says are flowing over the top and the other standing practically full. Another well is now going down on the Jake Bendele estate, near the Christilles and a dry well about 600 feet was drilled on the George Haass place, further north.

Cotton Opening Rapidly Pickers Needed.

A ride into the country Sunday afternoon showed a surprising amount of cotton opening this hot weather; some hard lands half open and stalks white. Farmers are offering $1.00 the hundred and hundreds of hands are needed. P. S. Kellar got about twenty from Laredo this week who wrote him for work. The same ones that come here every good year to pick. Our advice to farmers is to pick it out at once and market as rapidly as possible. Conditions in Europe are threatening and while the cotton crop will be short and there is little old cotton on hand, twenty cents is a good price.

Mr. Andreas Blatz Passed Away Friday.

Mr. Andreas Blatz, age 69 years, 1 month and 14 days, passed away at his farm home near Devine, Friday afternoon, after many weary months of suffering. He was born in San Antonio, June 13, 1854, when that city was a village and Medina county was an Indian hunting ground. He came to Medina County with his parents in early life and lived for a time at Castroville where 47 years ago he was married to Miss Mary Bendele, who survives with three sons and two daughters, to mourn his loss. The sons are Henry Blatz of Laredo, Geo. and Alfred Blatz of Devine and the daughters are Mrs. O. S. Brieden of El Paso, and Mrs. Dave Bailey of La Mesa, N. M. He is also survived by several half brothers and sisters, Richard and Jake Mechler of Devine Victor Mechler of Castroville, and Mrs. John Sauter of Big Foot, Mrs. Sophie Heubaum, of San Antonio. For about forty-five years he had lived on the old farm, near Bear Creek, and there his children were born and reared; and everybody knew Andreas Blatz as a good law abiding honorable citizen; a heritage his children may well be proud of and imitate. He was a member of St. Joseph Catholic church and the funeral was conducted Saturday evening in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, Rev. R. Planchet officiating. Many people from Pearsall, Castroville and San Antonio. The News extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Mangold and children, and Henry and Charlie Groff were also week-end visitors to San Antonio.

REVIVAL MEETING.

The revival meeting will begin at the Methodist church Sunday, August 12. Rev. J. C. Evans of Kerrville, will assist the pastor, Rev. E. A. Potts in conducting the meeting, and Rev. A. M. Foster of Hondo will lead the singing.

Mrs. J. A. Head was seriously ill several days this week, but is now somewhat improved.

Dr. Butler was called to the Tschirhart ranch near Medina Lake last Friday to see Barney Tschirhart, who had been kicked by a horse. The lad was in a serious condition for a while, but is reported to be improving.

J. A. Head is showing some of the Chinese ju jube berries which grows at his home in this city. His bushes are loaded with the fruit this season.

A fish hatchery which is expected to restock Medina Lake to the extent of 175,000 or 200,000 black bass annually is to be constructed at once.

The site is just below the dam and adjacent to it. When completed the plant will be turned over to the United States Bureau of Fisheries which will maintain it.

REDUCE NEWSPAPER POSTAGE RATE.

By H. H. Windsor, in the August Popular Mechanics Magazine.

The publishers of the country have borne with amazing patience the burden—even the unnecessarily heavy burden—which was laid upon them during the war and which still exists. Nearly all other emergency war taxes have been repealed, and of those which remain, few, if any, have not been lessened. The rate of postage on newspapers and magazines remains unchanged. During the war this rate of postage was increased not once but four times, and even if, as some contend, the original rate was too low, there can be no argument that the present rate is several times too high, being an increase from 100 per cent for the initial zone to 900 per cent for the last zone.

Will Scott of Hondo was in town Monday and said he had started to picking cotton on his farms.

READ THESE REASONS.

Here are a few reasons why home folks should lend their support to a home paper—read them and see if we're right:

- 1—Because when you were born, it was the home paper that introduced you to the world.
- 2—When you grew up and graduated, the home paper again gave you a nice writeup.
- 3—When later on you found your life companion and were happily married, the home paper gave you and your bride a nice notice.
- 4—When sickness and misfortune invaded your home, the sad news was carried to your friends and neighbors by the home paper.
- 5—When you had been successful in a business venture, or had been promoted, it was the home paper that heralded your ability.
- 6—If you sold out and moved to another location, the home paper followed you with the news of friends and neighbors.
- 7—When some unscrupulous person tried to injure your character, it was the home paper that came to your aid.
- 8—Because the home paper boosts your town and its institutions, its people, its schools and churches, and helps to promote good fellowship throughout the community.

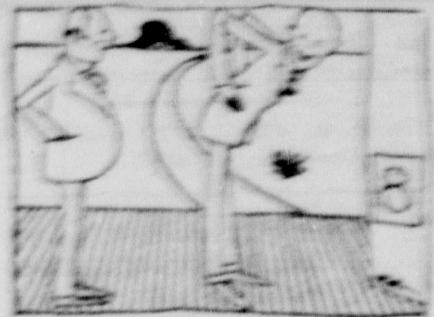

9—Because the live merchants offer money-saving bargains and protect you from catch-penny mail order fakes.

- 10—And last, when you're finally laid away, it is the home paper that prints consoling news of your demise and that extolls your virtues so the hearts of those who mourn are made to feel thankful that the home paper stuck by you from the cradle to the grave.—Exchange.

Large Watermelons.

Nipper Drug Company Tuesday morning received a big truck-load of large watermelons which were brought here from the Hardt farm in Medina county, where they had been raised on the premises belonging to Rev. L. D. Hardt's father. These melons were unusually large in size and of excellent quality and sweetness, which assisted the local firm disposing of these melons speedily. Although the melon market has about played out in this community, the superior quality of these melons effected their sale despite adverse conditions.

H. G. Hardt and son, Ben, of Yancey, were in Brackett Tuesday and delivered a fine lot of watermelons for the Nipper Drug Co.

They spent the day visiting Rev. L. D. Hardt and family.

OUR VACATION PREAMBULA-

TIONS.

On Saturday morning the 28th of May, wife and I took train for San Antonio to visit our second son, W. C. Horger, wife and daughter, Irene. Found them in good health, and busy in the vocations, avocations and recreations of life.

On Sunday morning, W. C. and wife being busy, in the lead of a church service, they autoed us to the first church of the Nazarene, where we enjoyed the Sunday school service and heard a splendid, spiritual, life-giving sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. Sharpe, from Prov. 29:18.—

Where there is no vision the people perish." Toward the close of the service, wife and I tendered our membership, and were tenderly and most heartily received by Pastor and members present.

Monday morning at 8:5, we boarded the L. & G. N. and arrived at Miami 12:30 noon; and at 1:40 P. M. caught train for Cleburne, Texas, here, at 7 P. M., Mr. C. D. Conley, whose first wife was our second daughter, who, with her 6 year old boy perished in the Corpus Christi storm of Sept 14th, 1919.

Let us, and by his "Sedan", we were pleasantly situated in his neat, snug little dwelling. Mr. Conley now has a noble and lovely wife, and a most promising boy about 18 months old. He has a well equipped cleaning and laundry plant, in which he employs five able men, well trained and efficient workers, one of whom, a Mr. King, 23 years experience in the trade, is a wife, who being a business woman, and a perfect lady, enjoys extra privileges and bears much of the responsibility of the management of the plant. They put out $800 $1,000 worth of work per month.

Conley, evidently, is in financial condition, and in sight of "easy Street" in the business world. His wife are faithful members of Presbyterian church in which he is a large Sunday school class of 10 to 14 years old, in the welfare of which he takes hearty interest.

We have written more extensively to Mr. Conley, because of our special interest of his acquaintances old friends, on account of his fortune in the loss of his entire family and almost all his property in the Corpus Christi storm; under which, perhaps he would have completely collapsed had it not been for the sustaining grace of God, and the sympathizing hands of his friends. Now we rejoice with him as we sing "what God hath wrought."

For a pleasant three days stay with Conley and his good wife and boy, at Cleburne, he took us, on Tuesday evening Aug. the 2nd, to a Harry Club Picnic at Waxahachie, and in one of the largest and most beautiful natural groves it has ever been our privilege to see. The people a sort of selection from among the Elite of the business world, accidentally excepted of course, talked, laughed, played ball in an unorganized and irregular, social mood, pulled off several other innocent pranking stunts, including several semi-secular songs by the Dallas quartet; which indeed was most excellent. Also, Fort Worth furnished a brass band of 16 boys from 12 to 16 years old, who gave us a splendid time ever and anon through the evening. Supper—Elete dinner—consisting of a half chicken, barbecued, with a liberal supply of suite and delicious accompaniments each plate, was served, free by Waxahachie club to a jolly crowd two or three hundred people.

About 8 P. M., in auto with Mr. Conley, we left for a 23 mile drive Dallas, arriving at the home of C. Horger, our youngest son, in Oak Cliff at 10 P. M., finding him, wife and baby girl all well and in good shape. He is preparing to attend a school of the Nazarene church, which is open Sept. 18th at Hamlin, Texas. He will teach a class in music, and study for the ministry.

W. W. Cherry whose wife is our eldest daughter, living 12 miles S. E. of Dallas, with wife, little boy and girl, all of whom are enjoying health and kind fortune, have come to see us twice. We are enjoying the association and unstinted love of our children, including their spouses and our grand children, both home and abroad, without exception or distinction. But best of all, have a well grounded reason to believe, that each and all of them have come to the years of discretion and accountability, have accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior, and most of them have so exercised their faith as to pass from darkness to light and from death to life; being born of the spirit, they are heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ: provided, they truly and properly suffer with Him, they shall share His peace and joy in this life, and be crowned with Him in celestial glory, throughout all ceaseless ages. To God, and the riches of his grace through Christ Jesus be all the glory.

We are enjoying the services of the first church of the Nazarene, in Oak Cliff; also its mission services in other parts of the city. There were five mature men of good deportment, neatly dressed and evidently intelligent, who at the regular Sunday night services knelt at the altar to seek the forgiveness of their sins. After quite a season of travailing prayer, exhortation and tender admonition on the part of 30 or 40 saints, with an occasional verse of song, and showers of actual Heaven born tears, both from the church and from the seekers, they were, one by one, brightly converted, justified, born of the spirit; and with the shekinah of Heaven upon their faces, each stood to testify, with no uncertain sound, of a conscious knowledge of a God-inspired, heart-felt, present-tense salvation.

O, what rejoicing of the saints, as they triumphantly shook the hands of the newly spirit born, and of each other, giving vocal praise to God for the virtue of the blood of the everlasting covenant, by the hand of the eternal Spirit, which never fails the true penitent seeker, and a church really travailing in prayer. "Tis the old time religion"; let us have more of it! Praise the Lord.

We close by saying that crops along our journey ranged, poor, medium, and good; fairly well divided as to the acreage between the three grades. They were splendid for two or three counties, some two hours run before we got to Milano. Also they are fine on the extensive rolling blackland prairies of Johnson, Ellis, and Dallas counties; by way of Cleburne, Waxahachie, to the city of Dallas.

With kindest regards and God inspired love for every soul that shall read these lines;

I am yours truly,
REV. J. T. HORGER.

YOUNG RANCHMAN HURT.

Mr. George Bendele, prominent young ranchman of this place, was seriously injured at the roping contest held here Sunday. The young man was not roping at the time the accident occurred, but, in company with several others was driving some calves back to the starting pen when his horse stumbled and fell, throwing and bruising him to such an extent that he was unconscious for many hours. He was rushed to a hospital at Hondo but as his condition did not improve he was taken to a San Antonio sanitarium Tuesday evening. His condition is reported very serious, but unless complications set in not considered fatal. At this writing Mr. Bendele was still unconscious. (Thursday morning.)

—D'Hanis Star.

Reports from the sanitarium Thursday evening were very encouraging, and doubtless the young man will soon again be enjoying normal health, the surgeons at the sanitarium deemed an operation unnecessary, being of the opinion that the slight fracture of the skull would heal without assistance. All of which will be good news to the young man's friends in Hondo.

COMMISSIONERS COURT.

A special session of the commissioners court convened at the court house July 27th, the purpose of the meeting being to appoint a special commissioner to dispose of the triangular tracts of land acquired by the county when the right-of-way was secured for the highway through the Smith and Crabtree tracts. Hon. L. J. Brucks was appointed as such commissioner, the county judge, H. F. Buss and J. W. Roberson being present and voting. A minimum price of $100 per acre was set by the commissioners.

(The 20 acre Crabtree tract has been sold by the commissioner to L. Barrientes.)

The court again met on August 3rd all the commissioners being present. The purpose of the meeting was to approve the rolls of the tax assessor and to canvass the votes cast in the recent Stock Law election.

The tax assessors rolls were examined and approved.

A canvass of the Stock Law election, held July 28th, to prevent the running at large of horses, mules, jacks and jennets, showed the following result:

For the Stock Law 517
Against the Stock Law 281

Majority for Stock Law 236

The election to prevent the running at large of hogs, sheep and goats showed the following result:

For the Stock Law 705
Against the Stock Law 123

Majority for Stock Law 582

It was ordered that the county Judge issue his proclamation in accordance with the above results, and that thirty days after such issuance and posting of such proclamation it shall be unlawful for horses, mules, jacks and jennets and hogs, sheep and goats to run at large.

No election was held at the Natalia box.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JOE NEUMAN.

A dear one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in the home, Which never can be filled.

God in his wisdom has recalled, The boon his love has given; And though the body slumbers here, The soul is safe in heaven.

We have lost our dear Joe,

He has bid us all adieu,

He has gone to live in Heaven,

He is not lost, but with the Angels on the other shore.

Oh, that dear one, how we loved him;

Oh, how hard to give him up!

But an angel came down for him,

And removed him from the flock.

We miss thee from our home, dear Joe;

We miss thee from thy place;

A shadow o'er our life is cast;

We miss the sunshine of thy face.

We miss thy kind and willing hand,

Thy fond and earnest care;

Our home is dark without thee,

We miss thee everywhere.

Weep not, dear ones,

For dear Joe has gone to Heaven,

And we all will meet him someday,

On that bright and golden shore.

THE RAIN.

The 40 point decline in the price of cotton is explained. This section was visited by a rain fall of 1.70 inches Thursday. Of course this rain will not add one ounce to the cotton yield, in fact, it is probably a detriment to the cotton crop, but it has served the purpose of depressing the market. About the only value of the rain is to the pastures which will be benefited.

CONSERVATION OF VISION.

Broadcasted by Dr. Strauss of New York, July 9th.

Every one of us is inclined to neglect those organs of our bodies which do not complain. We forget we have backs, or hands, or feet until they give us pain, Nature's signal of distress.

And so it is with our eyes, the most miraculous organs by which our brain secures over one-third of all its impressions. We were born with sight, and, because we are used to that marvelous power, we are far too often neglectful of it. We do not take care of our eyes.

The eye is constructed upon the principle of a camera, and we all know that if the camera is but slightly out of focus the picture or impression is blurred. So is it with the eye.
In order to see clearly we must have our eyes examined and glasses fitted to put them in focus. This examination is properly known as refraction and it is based directly upon the exact application of physical and mathematical lens to the eye.

The human eye is so wonderfully built that it can accommodate itself to many of the abuses to which it is subjected. Its delicate muscles and nerves to adjust themselves for an indefinite period to the strains put upon it, and, even under very severe abuse, may perform the task with little or no complaint. But physiologists tell us that the eyes use one quarter of all the nerve force in the body when they are functioning normally. It is clear, therefore, that an additional strain on the eyes make an added strain on the nerve force of the entire body, weakens it, makes it more subject to disease, and certainly impairs mental and bodily efficiency. You may say to yourself, "My eyes are all right. I have no symptoms of eye strain". But statistics prove that over 70 per cent of the people of America have defective vision and that only 30 per cent are wearing glasses to correct those defects. And even that 30 per cent now wearing glasses, only a very small proportion have had their eyes examined recently enough to be sure the glasses they are wearing are efficient.

Tests for the U. S. Army proved that over 70 per cent of the young men examined had subnormal vision, and these men were youngsters in the fullest vigor of life. Herbert Hoover's industrial survey brings out the same figures that are of vital interest to you, of particular interest to the people of an industrial district.
Listen! The world's largest typewriter factory had all its employees examined and found that 58 per cent needed glasses to do their work efficiently.

Of 3,000 garment workers examined only 25 per cent had normal vision.

A large lithographer of Brooklyn found that of his 3,000 employees, only 22 per cent had normal
vision.

A prominent jewelry factory of Plainville, Mass., found that 83.3 per cent needed glasses. After being fitted an increase of 28 per cent in production resulted and the president attributed this almost entirely to the correction of the eyes of the employees.

Industrial America must educate itself to the importance of the eyes of industry. Industrial managers and employers must realize now that correct illumination, correct placement of machines and correct glassing of employees especially are factors in production which cannot wisely be neglected. At the lathes and presses and other whirling machines in the vast workshop of the world stand millions of men and women who see their work as through a mist. Errors are made, as a result that, according to engineering reports, cost American industry over $30,000,000 every year—$30,000,000 wasted because of bad eye sight—$30,000,000 that could do a vast deal to make happier and better people if thrown into philanthropic work.

America must stop this waste of dollars, of human efficiency, of human happiness and of human progress.

Theodore Roosevelt gives, in his autobiography, a very pertinent paragraph. He says: "It was this summer that I got my first gun, and it puzzled me to find that my companions seemed to see things to shoot at which I could not see at all. One day they read aloud an advertisement in huge letters on a distant billboard and then I realized that something was the matter, for not only was I unable to read the sign but I could not even see the letters. I speak of this to my father, and soon afterwards got my first pair of spectacles, which literally opened an entirely new world to me. I had no idea how beautiful the world was until I got those spectacles. I had been a clumsy and awkward little boy, and while much of my clumsiness and awkwardness was doubtless due to general characteristics, a good deal of it was due to the fact that I could not see and yet was wholly ignorant that I was not seeing. The recollection of this experience gives me a keen sympathy with those who are trying in our public schools and elsewhere to remove the physical causes of deficiency in children, who are often unjustly blamed for being obstinate or unambitious or stupid."

Dr. Thomas Wood, of Columbia University, says: "of the 25,000,000 school children in the U. S., 10,000,- 000 are in actual need of glasses today." Think of it ten million little children fighting bravely but with broken swords; 10,000,000 little children trying to climb the ladder of life carrying on their shoulders that tremendous dead weight of bad eyesight; 10,000,000 little children impaired now and paying the penalty all through life for parental neglect.

You cannot tell whether or not your eyes are right and for the sake of prevention of blindness, do not buy ready made or cheap, advertised glasses. Consult an optometrist who is especially educated and trained in the correct manner of examining eyes for glasses and who will remove any doubt.

There are in Hondo Independent School District 579 children in the scholastic age. There are thirty dollars approximately allowed for each child. If 8 per cent of these children have deficient vision, how will they get the greatest efficiency out of this allotment?

There are 510 children in the scholastic age in Devine. There are 205 in D'Hanis and 2,508 in Medina County rural schools.

It is better to know than to guess —better for you, for your children and for your community. Have your eyes examined.

Optometrist.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 75c per bottle.
